

WELCOME TO MYANMAR

FLY MARIGOLD TRAVEL & TOUR

$1500

Package

YANGON

Safest major city; avoid protests and stay alert

Yangon, Myanmar's largest city, blends tradition and modernity. Famous for the golden Shwedagon Pagoda, it also features colonial architecture, bustling markets, and serene lakes. Once the capital, it remains the country's cultural and economic hub. With diverse communities and lively street life, Yangon offers a vibrant gateway into Myanmar.

Bagan

Iconic and relatively safer;
risk of quakes; avoid climbing unstable sites.

iStock™
Credit: dislentev
Editorial use only

Bagan, Myanmar, offers a captivating experience centered around its ancient temples and pagodas. Visitors can explore the vast archaeological zone, enjoy hot air balloon rides over the temple landscape, and immerse themselves in the local culture through markets and craft shops.

NAY PYI TAW

Nay Pyi Taw is the capital of Myanmar, established in 2005. The city is known for its wide roads, peaceful environment, and modern planning. Its highlight is the Maravijaya Buddha, the world's largest sitting marble Buddha statue. Standing 63 feet tall and weighing over 1,700 tons, it symbolizes the Buddha's victory over Mara and attracts pilgrims and tourists alike.

TAUNG GYI

Taunggyi, the capital of Shan State, is a beautiful hill city in Myanmar, known for its cool climate and diverse cultures. One of its most famous events is the Tazaungdaing Hot Air Balloon Festival, held annually in November. During this festival, colorful hot air balloons lit with candles rise into the night sky, creating a spectacular scene that attracts both local devotees and international tourists.

NGWE SAUNG

Adventure

experience explore discover

Paradise Island Getaway

VISIT AND EXPLORE BORACAY

Joint Bookings

INLE LAKE

Inle Lake, located in Shan State, Myanmar, is a serene freshwater lake famous for its stilt houses and floating gardens. The Intha people live on and around the lake, using unique leg-rowing techniques to navigate their boats. Visitors can explore markets, traditional crafts, and pagodas nearby. Known for its natural beauty, colorful sunsets, and rich culture, Inle Lake is a popular destination for tourists seeking an authentic experience of Myanmar's traditions and scenic landscapes.

KALAW

Kalaw, in Shan State, Myanmar, is a scenic hill town known for its cool climate, pine forests, and colonial-era architecture. It is a popular base for trekking to nearby villages inhabited by ethnic groups like the Palaung, Danu, and Pa-O. Tourists enjoy exploring nature trails, waterfalls, and local markets. Kalaw's peaceful environment, beautiful landscapes, and cultural diversity make it a favorite destination for travelers seeking adventure, relaxation, and an authentic glimpse of rural Myanmar life.

BAGO

KYITE HTEE YOE PAGODA

Kanbawzathadi Palace in Bago, also known as the Royal Palace of Bago, was built by King Bayinnaung in the 16th century during the height of the Taungoo Dynasty. It served as the royal residence and a symbol of power and prosperity. The palace showcased magnificent Myanmar architecture, with gilded halls and intricate wood carvings. Although it was destroyed by fire in the past, it has been beautifully reconstructed and now stands as a proud historical site reflecting Myanmar's royal heritage.

Kyaiktiyo Pagoda, also called the Golden Rock, is a famous Buddhist pilgrimage site in Myanmar. It sits atop a granite boulder covered with gold leaf, balancing precariously on the edge of a cliff. Legend says the rock is held in place by a strand of Buddha's hair. Pilgrims visit to meditate and pray, especially during festivals. The site is known for its breathtaking views, spiritual significance, and unique golden appearance, attracting both locals and tourists.

MANDALAY

Mandalay is a major city in Myanmar, located on the Irrawaddy River. It is the country's second-largest city and a cultural and economic hub. Mandalay is famous for its royal palace, Buddhist monasteries, and traditional arts and crafts. Tourists visit for historic sites, U Bein Bridge, and local markets. The city reflects Myanmar's rich heritage and traditions.

✉ ym@flymarigoldmm.com

🌐 www.flymarigoldmm.com

📞 09 740015022

📍 No.682, Bayint Naung Road, [32]

Ward, North Dagon Township
Yangon, Myanmar